Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Chou Asia Fund's (the "Fund") objective is to provide long-term growth of capital by investing primarily in the securities markets of Asia considered by Chou Associates Management Inc. (the "Manager") to be undervalued. The Fund may also invest in securities other than equities and in businesses located outside of Asia. The Fund's investments may also include common and preferred shares, convertible debentures, options, warrants, government and corporate bonds and short-term indebtedness. The Fund may also use derivatives such as, but not limited to, futures, options, swaps and forward contracts to gain exposure to securities and asset classes consistent with the objectives of the Fund, and to hedge portfolio exposure against losses from foreign currency and domestic currency exposure and changes in securities prices.

The Fund's investment strategy follows a strong discipline with regard to the prices paid to acquire portfolio investments. The level of investment in a particular entity's securities is generally commensurate with the current price of the company's securities in relation to the Manager's assessment of such entity's intrinsic value as determined by various factors. This approach is designed to provide an extra margin of safety, which in turn, serves to reduce the Fund's overall portfolio risk.

Risk

The risks of investing in the Fund are disclosed in the Fund's most recently filed Simplified Prospectus which can be found on the Fund's website at www.choufunds.com and SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, there were no material changes that affected the Fund's overall level of risk.

Market Review

In 2025, the market, as measured by the MSCI AC Asia Index, rose 28.74% in US dollars. Chinese markets led gains as renewed policy support and a rebound in technology shares lifted investor sentiment across mainland China and Hong Kong. Taiwan benefited from strong global demand for semiconductors and AI-related hardware, supporting solid market gains. Indian equities lagged regional peers, weighed by valuation concerns and intermittent foreign outflows.

Results of Operations

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Fund increased by 17.1% for Series A units and 17.8% for Series F units after fees and expenses, while the MSCI AC Asia Pacific Total Return Index increased by 22.8% in Canadian dollars. In U.S. dollars, the Fund was up 22.7% for Series A units and 23.4% for Series F units, while the MSCI AC Asia Pacific Total Return Index increased by 28.7%.

The top contributors in 2025 were the equity holdings of China Yuchai International Limited, Alibaba Group Holding Limited, Tencent Holdings Limited, AJIS Company Limited, and Postal Savings Bank of China Co Ltd.

The only underperformer in the 2025 was the equity holding of BYD Electronic (International) Company Limited.

The Canadian currency appreciated against the Hong Kong dollar, which negatively affected the Fund.

CHOU ASIA FUND

Portfolio Update

During the year, the Fund reduced the equity holding of Alibaba Group Holding Limited and China Yuchai International Limited.

As part of the reverse merger plan, IDFC Limited's shareholders received 155 shares of IDFC First Bank for every 100 shares in IDFC Limited.

Capital A completed its aviation disposal to AirAsia X via newly issued AAX shares distributed by dividend-in-specie.

The Fund had no covered call options in its portfolio as at December 31, 2025.

The Fund received $3,312 in income from its securities lending program in 2025.

The Fund did not enter into any foreign currency contracts in 2025.

The Fund's net redemptions for the year ended December 31, 2025 were approximately $753,223 for Series A units and net redemptions of approximately $539,591 for Series F units. Included in net redemptions are subscriptions, redemptions and transfers in/out. Out of the net redemptions for Series F units, $31,686 was switched from Series A units following the OEO trailer ban. The Fund's average month-end cash position for the year was 27.2% of the Fund's net assets.

Recent Developments

With inflation easing, the Federal Reserve has kept interest rates unchanged, but markets remain sensitive to renewed tariff risks and ongoing trade tensions across Europe and North America. Geopolitical developments and changes in how capital is being allocated to AI are adding to uncertainty. At the same time, signals from global policy discussions suggest slower growth and shifting alliances ahead. Together, these factors could have a near-term impact on the Fund's portfolio performance.

Related Party Transactions

The Manager manages the overall business of the Fund, including selection of the securities in the Fund's portfolio, and promoting the sale of the Fund's units. The Manager is also the trustee of the Fund. Investors receive units of a trust when they invest in the Fund. The Manager, as trustee, holds the actual title to the property in the Fund, including its cash and portfolio securities, on behalf of the Fund's investors.

The Manager, along with its officers and directors, invest in units of the Fund from time to time in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2025, they do not hold any units of the Fund. All transactions with the Manager are carried out at the Fund's net asset value as at the transaction date.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, there were no transactions with related parties except in the capacities and instances set out above.

(²) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of redeemable units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of redeemable units outstanding over the financial year.

(³) Distributions were reinvested in additional units of the Fund or paid in cash upon request.

(⁴) This information is provided as at the year end shown and is rounded to the nearest thousand.

(⁵) Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated year and is expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly average net asset value during the year. The Manager may, at its discretion, waive or absorb certain operating expenses. MER includes the waiver or absorption by the Manager of certain operating expenses, while the MER before absorption shows the MER prior to operating expenses being waived or absorbed by the Manager.

(⁶) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly average net asset value during the year.

(⁷) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the financial year. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

CHOU ASIA FUND

Management Fees

The Manager manages the Fund. The Manager is entitled to an investment management fee calculated daily as a percentage of the market value of the net assets equal to 1.5% per annum for Series A units and 1.0% per annum for Series F units, payable monthly. The Manager pays trailer fees of 50 basis points per year to dealers out of management fees for Series A units. There is no trailer fee paid out for Series F units.

Past Performance

General

The following charts and tables show the Fund's past performance. Rates of return are historical total returns that include changes in unit prices and assume the reinvestment of all distributions. These returns do not take into account any sales charges, redemption fees, other optional expenses or income taxes that the Fund's investors have to pay and which could reduce these returns. The Fund's past performance does not necessarily indicate its future performance.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar charts show the annual performance for each of the Series A and Series F units of the Fund for each of the years shown. Each chart shows, in percentage terms, how an investment on January 1 would have increased or decreased by December 31 for each of the years, and how the performance of the Fund varied from year to year.
